Wiretaps Decline, But Cost Goes Up

Washington Post Staff Writer

warrants last year, 136 fewer tional cost to $5.5 million. than in 1973, but the national showed yesterday.

activity under the 1968 federal bery investigation. wiretap law, disclosed that once again Justice Department lawyers obtained permission to tap a telephone every time they asked a federal judge for it.

There were 121 federal court wiretap orders in 1974, down from 130 the year before and less than half of the 285 warrants issued in the peak year, 1971.

State courts, led as usual by New York and New Jersey, is-sued 607 tap orders last year, down 17 per cent from the record 734 in 1973.

William Lynch, chief of the Justice Department's organized crime section, said the reduced federal eavesdropping was the result of "increased sophistication" by racketeers in avoiding taps and the fact that wiretapping requires many man-hours and much parequires perwork.

Former Attorney General Ramsey Clark refused to use the authority given by the 1968 law, calling wiretapping a waste of government, re-sources and a needless invasion of privacy.

Under the Nixon and Ford administrations, officials at Justice pointed out yesterday, each of the 945 federal wiretaps since 1969 has yielded an average of five arrests and two convictions.

The cost of federal wiretapping, which peaked at $2.2

million in 1971, fell to $1.3 quires the administrative of 281 were for gambling and 199 million last year, but the 16 fice, bookkeeper for the fed were for drugs. State and federal prosecu- states using their own wiretors obtained 728 wiretapping tap laws raised the total na- warrant statistics from judges bill for court-ordered elec- wiretap costs rose to $8,087 tronic eavesdropping rose per installation, up from bates over the expense and from $4.5 million to $5.5 mil- $5.632 in 1973. The most fectiveness of wiretapping. lion, a report to Congress costly single eavesdrop $159,-963 was conducted by a New of the Administrative Office of U.S. Courts, summarizing for six months during a brillege of U.S. Courts, summarizing a brillege of U.S. Courts, summarizing a brillege of U.S. Courts, summarizing the five days when solving under the 1009 feeders.

The federal wiretap law re eral court system, to assemble from bates over the expense and eferal eavesdrop orders in 1974, prisoners held hostages.

Two federal warrants involved kidnaping. One was a ional cost to $5.5 million.

Average state and federal federal courts. The annual rein California, believed to be ports often are cited in de-bates over the expense and ef-part of the investigation of the patricia Hearst kidnaping. The other authorized planting Suspected gambling and a microphone and tapping a narcotics operators continued telephone in the cellblock of